

What exactly is a “Biblical Mindset”?

Letting the Bible guide my _____ and my _____.

Why is it so important?

1) Ignorance isn't all it's _____.

2) The path of wisdom & success is _____.

3) Growth & change starts _____.

How to Develop & Maintain a Biblical Mindset

1) Make it a _____.

2) Find your personal _____ _____.

3) Stay connected to _____ _____.

Questions for Further Study

For the week of January 3rd, 2010

1. This week we started a new study that will help us identify ways to strengthen our relationship with Christ, become mature disciples, and make a difference in our world. When you think of a mature Christian, what character qualities or attributes come to mind?

What are some obstacles or challenges that you may face as you mature spiritually? (See James 1:2-4 and Philipians 3:12-21)

2. Pastor Tim pointed out that a Biblical mindset is built upon our understanding of what the Bible actually says. It's good to remember that it can take some work to understand Jesus' teaching. Read the following and jot down the truths and/or principles that Jesus was communicating. Keep in mind that Jesus used many different teaching techniques to get his points across.

Matthew 5:1-11 →

Matthew 18:21-35 →

Luke 14:25-33 →

Luke 22:24-27 →

John 15:1-17 →

3. Pastor Tim said that understanding our preferred learning style can help us approach the Bible in a way that fits who we are. What type of learner are you?

(If you're interested in knowing more about your personal learning style, or learning styles in general, check out www.learning-styles-online.com for a free learning style inventory. It takes about 20 minutes to complete and will explain to you exactly what kind of learner you are.)